

SEERAD Sheep ID Meetings

SEERAD are running a series of meetings on Sheep ID to help producers understand and comply with the rules on sheep ID. Scotland currently has derogation from rules on double-tagging and in order to maintain this, it is important that the current regime is adhered to and satisfies the European Commission. If you are in any doubt or would like to make sure that you are clear about these rules, please attend one of the following meetings: (all meetings start at 7.30pm, with the exception of the Shetland meeting which begins at 7pm)
